Module Description

This is fundamental, applicable course for 5th year pharmacy students. The course integrates principles of Good Manufacturing Practice (GMP) with emphasis on the physicochemical, microbiological and biopharmaceutical criteria used in evaluation of dosage forms. Essentially, students study pharmaceutical process validation, GMP guidelines on pharmaceutical manufacturing viz, GMP of starting materials, sterile products, biological products, herbal pharmaceuticals, GMP of drug discovery and clinical trials as well as GMP guidelines on auditing and self-inspection.