Module Description

This course is built on the administrative, managerial and human resource principals with specific application to managing and owning a pharmacy practice community. The course will topics such as basis of pharmacy practice, Pharmaceutical care, Communications skills, Medications errors and TDM, Interpretations of lab data, Viral, bacterial and fungal skin diseases and Eye diseases.