Module Description

Clinical placements take place in either hospital pharmacies or in medical departments of hospitals. The class is divided into two groups. One group of students will attend hospital pharmacy placements in different hospitals (2-3 students/pharmacy) before mid-semester exams while the other group will attend the medical rotation (5-10 students/medical ward). After the mid-semester exams the groups rotate from medical to pharmacy placement and vice versa.