Module Description

This course complements "Industrial Pharmacy-I. It discusses other imperative unit operations of industrial significance such as mixing, milling, extraction, crystallization, size enlargement and evaporation. Focus is also given to further implement on advanced perspective on the study of machine equipment and peripherals."