Module Description

This course reinforces the skills of students and boosts their trade talents so as to become successful businessmen. It explains how to best manage their business and provide an awareness of their business cycle. Also, how to keep up with their financial accounts; inventories; drug expiry-dates, select suppliers, and how to become successful employers as well.