Module Description

This course is designed to provide Pharmacy students with a comprehensive and intensive overview of the methodology used in the development and implementation of patient-specific therapeutic treatment plans. The course is also designed to improve clinical problem-solving skills of the students. Patient care requires critical analysis of drug therapy and monitoring to assure optimal drug efficacy and safety in conjunction with cost-effectiveness and manage reporting adverse effect of drugs.