University Policy for all exam rubrics:

.1 That exam rubrics should clearly state:
   i. The number of questions that students are required to answer.
   ii. That students should indicate which question attempts they wish to be marked on the front page of their Examination Answer Book

.2' Staff will only mark the requisite number of questions and all other answers will be disregarded. If the student answers more questions than required and does not indicate which attempts s/he wants to be marked, staff will mark answers in the order they appear in the Examination Answer Book up to the required number.

.3 This will apply from Semester Two, 2013/14

Approved by Senate on 16 December 2013
