

Project Summary

Project titled “Translocal Creative Knowledge Exchange for Social Impact: Heritage, Community, and Sustainability Initiatives in Egypt and the UK.”

Objectives

The project aims to enhance equitable transnational education in art and design through Collaborative Online International Learning (COIL), enrich curricula, engage students with heritage craft and sustainable urban design, and support artisans and local communities.

Partners:

Manchester Metropolitan University, Faculty of Arts and Humanities / Manchester School of Art, UK
Dr Rachelle Knowles
Head of International, Arts and Humanities.

Funding Agency British Council

Expected Outcomes

The project will deliver a bilingual COIL toolkit and equitable TNE framework, two collaborative student/community projects, public exhibitions in Egypt and the UK, and strengthened institutional and community capacity, particularly in support of artisans and local communities.

Principal Investigator: Prof. Dr. Iman Gawad.